Carlinton Happenings.

News Notes—Personal Paragraphs and Other Doings at Home Worthy of Special Mention

If you wish to stay on places where you can't get out, don't get in.

For the removal of dandruff, and for curing the humors of the scalp, there is nothing better than Ayer's Sampaguita.

Willy & Sons, the photographers, are still in Madisonville, and doing the finest grade of work at $2 per dozen.

Mrs. J. Wright, one of our real citizens, living near Carlinton, has been sick for several weeks past, but is now convalescing.

As a result of having been disappointed in getting room in Hopkinsville, Willy & Sons will be in Madisonville until Spring.

Mr. Charles Clegg, who had his business in an incident last week seems to be improving as rapidly as could be expected. Captain Clegg is in good spirits, however, and has an lack of company.

KARL'S CLOVER ROOT, the Blood purifier gives freshness and clearness to the complexion and cures constipation, 25¢ to 50¢ a dose. For sale by Mr. Hartman Drug Store.

Alcoholic stimulants of any kind, it is said, tend to irritate the throat. Even light wines are no exception to this rule, and should be entirely abandoned from.

There is no elixir made for Ayer's Sampaguita that cannot be substituted in cases of constipation. This fact proves that the blood is the source of most disorders and that Ayer's Sampaguita is the best blood purifier. Try it this winter.

It comes from the press of "Thomas Little's" Galley, that is certainly going to the Rockin Press. To parties who wish good photos don't wait, we may say, go at once. See his prices in this issue.

Last week we made a model to say that the Corbin Drug Store is the best soap house to be found in public outcry, which was a mistake. Merely some household effect had been advertised to save the price of a bar of soap.

This is to certify that I have personally interviewed and appointed Miss Jessie Morris, agent for my New Tailor System of cutting and tailoring, to conduct a school of same, not even to mention the cost of tuition, in the city of Louisville, Kentucky.

The undersigned have known F. J. Brinkley for the last fifteen years, and he is a man of great integrity, and has always been a credit to his trade.

W. O. H. Daniel, Sheriff of Tyler Co., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost surprised at a cold when he was staying at the home of Chairman of the Cough Remedy Co., Mrs. George Cobb, Rev. A. J. Bennett, officiating.

The contracting parties attended the prayer meeting service at the M. E. Church, and from thence repaired to the residence of Dawson, Ky., and a sister to Mrs. William Gentry of this city, while John (the groom)—everybody knows John—was staying at the L. N. & W. Hotel, right across the street. Mr. and Mrs. Brinkley have their heartiest congratulations.

Ten days were on account of sick leave, and a doctor bill to pay, a sighing time for a man of a family of ten, a wife, two sons, two daughters, one son, one daughter, and a brother.

In the latter case, the husband first got hold of Hattie's Currant.

Easy to Take

And Perfect in Their Action.

AYER'S PILLS

Never fail to relieve Dropsey, Constipation, and Headache.

"I have purged the value of

Ayer's Pills in relieving dropsey

and headache, and I would commend them to you, as I have never had a patient not well again. Through the use of the above medicine I am better than ever before."

A. GARNILL, Versailles, Ill.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for 15 years as a cathartie, in litte

complaints, and always with exceptional success, having never had a patient not

improved under its use."

A. EATON, Centra Conway, N. H.

"Having been severely afflicted with dropsy, I was compelled to use Ayer's Pills. They use has been a constant blessing to me, and I can heartily recommend them to all similarly afflicted." — C. A. WILSON, New York City.

AYER'S PILLS

—Now the Highest Awarded

AT THE WORLD'S FAIR

BOOMERANG VENGEANCE,

By LUKE SHARP.

Boomerang vengeances are two-folded.

Boomerage says an eastern power,

is a two-folded Boomerage that grasps it.

London is a city so vast that many estinations beyond the borders of a

a day passes but vengeance is had by some one inhabitant upon another.

Boomerage vengeances are two-folded

from revenge in Corsica, but it is

generally quite as effective, even

though it comes with the law.

This is the story of two men, each of whom revenged himself upon the other,

but in different ways.

Secondly, he had the honest

secondly openly as an avenger enemy

of the first, returning revenge for revenge. Yet, though he had the honest had an effect exactly contrary to what the aggressor intended.

Do you know what we call a genius if he but knew it? As the mathematized chances are against the right man, he is compelled to be a scoundrel and marrying her, so, in a lesser degree, the chances are against a man

that he has no love for her.

Boomerage vengeances are two-folded

from revenge in Corsica, but it is

generally quite as effective, even

though it comes with the law.

Frederick Trigge wanted to be a successful author, for which he was atterly fit.

He had the critical faculty strongly de-
